HOME MERCHANTS TO BE PROTECTED

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, May 1st, at 10 a. m., there being present Jos. M. Francis, presiding, Jas. T. Casey, William H. Brown, John MacBain and C. V. Thompson.

The minutes of the meetings of April 10th and 17th were read and approved.

Supervisor Brown addressed the board in the matter of the large number of peddlers and vendors coming into the county from the outside, seriously interfering with the business of home merchants and at the same time damaging the county's highways. The other members of the board agreed with Supervisor Brown that something should be done toward remedying the situation and protect the merchants of the county, as well as the highway. It was thereupon ordered, on motion of Brown, seconded by MacBain, that ordinance No. 156, covering the licenses for vendors and peddlers be referred to District Attorney Swart for revision.

District Attorney Swart presented and read a resolution ordering the payment of the money due for the right of way over the Hull property at San Carlos for the State Highway between Heresford and Redwood City. The resolution was adopted on motion of Brown, seconded by MacBain.

District Attorney Swart informed the board at this time that all the legal matters pertaining to the securing the rights of way from the different property owners had been settled and that there was now nothing standing in the way of the completion of the highway.

On motion of Casey, seconded by Brown, the supervisor from the first township was given permission to sell a water wagon belonging to the county for $100, also several tanks.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, the latter was granted permission to dispose of some water tanks on the road between Halfmoon Bay and Purissima.

R. F. Chilcutt appeared before the board in behalf of the Anglo-California Trust Company, a corporation, and the Redwood Highlands Company, a corporation, and presented a map of Oak Knoll Manor, the new subdivision to Redwood Highlands, together with a bond in the sum of $2000.

A resolution accepting said bond was adopted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey.

A resolution accepting the above map and rejecting all streets and avenues described on said map, was adopted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, the sheriff was authorized to move a safe belonging to the county from Chamberlain's store, in the town of Redwood, to the courthouse.

The report of Horticultural Commissioner Newton Peck showed that he had inspected during the month of April 4945 trees, shrubs and plants, all of which were passed as clean.

A communication was received from Maymie Cawley asking that she be allowed to withdraw her application for a class "A" liquor license in the town of Purissima, the Fourth township, on account of another license being in existence for the same place.

The request was granted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey, and the tax collector was instructed to return the amount of the deposit covering the payment of the above license.

A communication received from the Department of Commerce asking the board to take some action toward repairing the damage done the United States Signal Station at Farallone on account of the breaking of the fill at that place, was referred to District Attorney Swart to report at the next meeting.

A check for $100.00 was received from the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, covering their deposit in connection with certain excavations for gas pipes along Market street in the town of Colma. The check was accepted on motion of Casey, seconded by MacBain.

An application was received from Ben Demml of Redwood City for a permit to peddle fruit and vegetables in the county. The request was granted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company also submitted a bond of $250 covering the opening up of San Pedro Road in the town of Colma. On motion of Casey, seconded by MacBain, the bond was accepted and ordered filed.

On motion of Thompson, seconded Brown, it was ordered that Contractor Lou G. Hare be instructed to complete the macadamizing of the county road from Gazos creek to the county line.

Contractor, Lou G. Hare addressed the board and asked to have that portion of his contract accepted for the Pescadero to Pigeon Point. Supervisor Thompson stated that the work had been done in a most satisfactory manner. No action was taken in the matter, however, as it was necessary for Mr. Hare to have a recommendation from Surveyor Neuman, showing that the work was completed. This Mr. Hare was instructed to do.

Supervisor MacBain addressed the board in the matter of the depression in the State Highway within the city limits of Redwood, caused by the sinking of a culvert. On his motion, seconded by Brown, it was ordered that the surveyor prepare plans and specifications for a concrete culvert to be constructed in place of the one that had sunk.

County Engineer Neuman presented plans and specifications for one mile of paving on Mission Road at the Holy Cross fill. The plans after being amended so as to reduce the width of the road from 20 feet to 18 feet, were accepted and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids.

Supervisor MacBain addressed the board in behalf of Mrs. Maquina Castro, a resident of Redwood City, whose husband recently died suddenly, leaving a family of six small children. On motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, it was ordered that State aid in the sum of $6.25 be allowed each of the four youngest of the above children.

A communication was received from County Auditor J. J. Shields, calling the board's attention to the conditions obtaining in his office regarding the increase of work and the necessity of himself and his deputy to frequently work long hours overtime in order to keep the work up to date. Mr. Shields asked the board to take such action as lay in its power to grant him relief in the way of more help.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, the auditor was given permission to hire help in his office to the extent of $75 per month for a period of six months.

The county surveyor presented deeds to a strip of land through the Brazil and Mattel properties for rights of way for the Pescadero to San Gregorio road. The deeds together with claims covering the costs of the above strips were referred to District Attorney Swart.

On motion of Casey, seconded by MacBain, Supervisor Brown was granted permission to make necessary improvements on Cemetery avenue in the Second district.

A communication was received from John Foppiano Jr., asking permission to transfer his liquor license from its present location, County road and Millbrae avenue, to a point about 160 feet north of Chodbourne avenue, on the county road in the town of Millbrae. The request was granted on motion of Casey, seconded by Brown.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, the following claims presented were ordered passed:

G. H. Allen & Co., $107.69; Peninsula Industrial Commission, $50.00; Will H. Toepeke, architect, $1500.00.

A communication was received from Anne Bell Bailey, county librarian, recommending the establishment of branch libraries at La Honda and the County Farm. The recommendations were approved, on motion of Brown, seconded by Casey.

The following persons having made application and furnished the required bond, were granted liquor licenses:

First township—M. Vernengo, Colma; F. J. Russi, Colma.

REDWOOD AND ITS GUESTS

During the week Redwood has once again been called upon to maintain its name for big undertakings. The Grand Court Foresters of America, after a six-day session, has just completed its labors. Also, the Redwood City Woman's Club gave its annual Floral Parade, to which was added nightly band concerts and carnival features. This has called for a considerable expenditure and great labor. Yet if we can judge correctly, Redwood City has again done itself proud and will linger in the memory of its visitors, who were profuse in their expressions of appreciation. The whole town has helped nobly. Forgive us that we have not been able to call you all by name and thank you on behalf of the city.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION

The Republican party of California has come into possession of its own. It has been returned to its accustomed place in the field of political activities after eight years of retreat through treachery and trickery of one Hiram Johnson and his progressive adherents. But such deception and trickery as practiced by the chief executive cannot always prevail, as they did last Tuesday and assert their rights by repudiating such methods and such tricks.

The election last Tuesday very clearly demonstrated that the people of the State of California are heartily weary of the Johnson administration. The result of the election can only be construed as the death knell of the once powerful boss, for no boss ever practiced more deception or resorted to more unfair means to achieve success than the head of the progressive party in this State. The Bull Moose, however is now only a negligible force in the political affairs of California. This was shown at the primaries on Tuesday for that party only polled a very few votes. It has passed out as did other political reform parties after a brief existence.

A regular Republican delegation will go to Chicago in June to confer with other Republicans and will nominate a candidate for the presidency who will sweep the country in November and who will take charge of the affairs of the National Government, March 4, 1917.

Governor Johnson was not satisfied with sending a progressive delegation to the Progressive convention at Chicago but he also desired to elect a progressive delegation to the Republican convention. In other words he wished to dominate both delegations to the two conventions. He was the power behind the United Republic ticket. He endorsed it and labored for its success. Though the personnel of that ticket was of the very highest order, yet the people knew it was a personal order of Governor Johnson and as such defeated it as an affront to him for his attempt to rob regular Republicans of their delegation to the convention. Members of the party of Lincoln had not forgotten the manner in which they were disgraced by Governor Johnson four years ago and took good care that they would not be hoodwinked or tricked by him this year.

The primary election in California will have a salutary effect among the Republican states of the East and Midwest for it shows that this state has broken from the Bull Moose, though the last one to do so, and has once more been placed in the Republican column, thus demonstrating its independence and freedom from the effects of Progressivism.

The Republican party has reason to rejoice at the splendid victory of Tuesday and full endorsement of its principles and policies by the people of the Golden State.

ROY W. CLOUD ADDRESSES INSTITUTE AT SANTA CRUZ

Trustees of Santa Cruz County Hear Able Address by Superintendent

Superintendent of Schools, Roy W. Cloud addressed on last Friday the trustees of the schools of Santa Cruz county. The institute was composed of nearly every trustee in that county. The attendance was unusually large and this may be attributed to the splendid program prepared by the superintendent of that county. Mr. Cloud made the principal address which was accredited by those who listened to it to be the best ever delivered to an institute in that county. At its conclusion, Mr. Cloud received many flattering compliments on his splendid effort.

STREET TO BE CLOSED IN DILLER ADDITION

Bond of Lower Bidder Holds up Contract on Sidewalks on El Camino Real

The request of the John Horstman Company to close Monroe avenue in the Diller Addition from Franklin street to El Camino Real was given favorable consideration by the board of town trustees Monday evening. The chemical company which was represented by R. F. Chittick has an option on the property on both sides of the street which has never been opened or improved. They intend to build a large chemical works there in the very near future. They also desired that the extension of Maple avenue from Franklin street to El Camino Real be made as near the north bank of the creek as is advisable. For these concessions they would give the town a deed to all of their land south of the north line of the proposed Maple street. Resolutions were offered and passed giving notice of the intention of the board to close that portion of Monroe street. John Horstman Company were also granted the privilege of operating a spur track across Monroe avenue from lot 10 to lot 6 and across Franklin street from lot 6 to lot 13.

A communication from the mayor of San Rafael inviting the people of Redwood City to attend the Sir Francis Drake celebration in Marin county on May 19, 20 and 21. The communication was filed.

The clerk was instructed to file a supplementary report with the State Compensation Fund in the case of Mark E. Ryan who was injured in an automobile accident.

The George H. Irving Company called the board's attention to the roughness of the shoulders on the Highway in front of Dan Stafford's property at Broadway. The street will be leveled under the direction of Superintendent of Streets Dickey. Their request for a sign over the highway was referred to Trustee Tuchen, chairman of the street committee for a report.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company was granted their request to put contacts on city poles on Heller street and contacts on King street and Whipple Road.

The application of I. Allegrioli of San Jose for a class A liquor license to run a saloon at 233 Main street was granted. He will continue the business of the Alhambra Bar formerly owned by Will Smith. His bond was waived until July 1.

Howard M. Dam bid $285.24 and T. C. Rice bid $319.32 for the sidewalk construction on El Camino Real from Five Points to Rogers street. As Mr. Dam bond did not specify the amount as required by law the awarding of the bids was left over until the next meeting when the city attorney will pass upon the bond.

Bids were ordered invited for 3,500 yards of filling material for Center street. The board contemplates filling the full width of the street.

Assessment blanks similar to those filed by the county will be provided for Town Clerk Price. He was allowed full salary while doing assessment work.

Trustee Merrill brought before the board a plan of placid electroliners along Main street and Broadway the expense of which would be divided equally among the town, the property owners along those streets and the business men. The matter of properly lighting the business section of our town has given the board considerable concern for some time. This plan is a very good one and met with the approval of the board.

The board instructed the marshal to employ several plain-clothes men for the week who are familiar with the faces of crooks.

Bids were ordered advertised for 1000 feet of two and one-half inch fire hose and 400 feet of inch and a half chemical hose.

After allowing the usual budget of claims the board adjourned.

John Dyer vs. H. Kurner, et al. Motion for judgment in the pleadings denied. Motion to strike out paragraph 3 of the answer granted.

Motion to strike out paragraph 4 of the answer denied.

Will Complete His Agreement to the Satisfaction of All

Aviator Sam Purcell will remain in Redwood until such time as his motor has been repaired when he will give an overcity flight in accordance with his agreement with the agreement with Chairman McGettigan of the Floral Festival committee. Purcell regrets very much that because of engine trouble he was unable to give a better exhibition Friday and it is his intention to make his next flight one that will satisfy even the most critical. Because of the fact that a number of the subscribers to the aviation fund have expressed themselves as satisfied with Friday's flight Purcell has been given the check for one-half the amount promised him. The balance will be paid when he completes his contract.

REDWOOD CITY'S CARNIVAL WEEK

The Grand Court Foresters of America, and the Floral Festival

This has been a gala week in Redwood City, during which the twenty-seventh annual session of the Grand Court Foresters of America convened at American Foresters' Hall. Court Madrone No. 158 thus became entertainers to a gathering composed of several hundred influential visitors.

Also, on Thursday the fourth annual Floral Parade under the auspices of the Redwood City Woman's Club took place. For the event there was a combination of forces, the whole town uniting to make the Floral Festival a carnival day.

These events were planned upon a comprehensive scale and carried out with notable foresight and precision. Everything promised beforehand was delivered. There were no hitches. The visitors were well entertained and the people enjoyed a great free show, or several of them, with never a hint of anything but visible results.

Professional work was manifest everywhere, in the decorations, illumination, music, program, parade, etc. By mutual agreement committees had been minimized and the whole affair placed in the hands of just a few time-tried executives, to whom all others acted as enthusiastic supporters.

Even the weather proved quite perfect, with cool nights and charming summer days. The conditions for the celebration were therefore ideal.

The Six-Day Program

Monday, May 1—Arrival of delegates, reception of Foresters and Companions at Foresters' Hall. Band concert 8 p. m., Broadway and Main.

Tuesday, May 2—Grand Court and Grand Circle sessions, presentation of "Keys of Our City," by Mayor E. H. Sampson. Band concert at 8 p. m., Broadway at Grammar School. Banquet to Foresters and Companions at Alhambra Theatre auditorium.

Wednesday, May 3—Grand Court and Grand Circle sessions, class initiation and competitive drill, automobile sight seeing trip. Band concert 8 p. m., Broadway and Main.

Thursday, May 4—Grand Court and Companions session, Floral parade and Carnival, also parade of delegates of Grand Court and Grand Circle, drill team and drum corps. After parade, special program at Ball Grounds.

Friday, May 5—Grand Court and Grand Circle sessions during day, and grand dress ball at Foresters' Hall 9 p. m.

Saturday, May 6 (today) will be devoted to sight seeing trips around San Mateo county, thus ending the week's festivities. The visitors have already had ample opportunity to see the beauties of the near-by localities and are loud in their praise of the city, its surroundings and the wonderful future in store for Redwood.

The City Beautiful

Decorations were, in the national colors. Discretion and good taste prevailed. The civic center itself was a great attraction, including within its area the Redwood City Grammar School, Sequoia Union High School and Carnegie Library, each with splendid ornamental grounds.

The Court House and its grounds commanded attention from everybody. The building was decorated from cornice to base with graceful festoons or drapings of flags. At night an appreciated effect was produced by the use of long festoons of electric bulbs in carnival colors, radiating from a common center and extending from Court House to the Broadway curb, thus forming a brilliant canopy over the entire area.

The City Hall, banks, public buildings and commercial houses were also very generally decorated, some very elaborately, others expressed in artistic strength and plainness.

Even the band stand, an elaborate portable affair of good construction, showed the quiet taste of some decorator. It did not stand out glaringly, but harmonized and was all right.

Thus the color scheme was well handled thanks to the good judgment of some one in charge.

It might be added that while the town limits were formerly bounded on the west by the County (at present known as the State Highway) they now extend for about three miles further back and well into the foothills. This gives area, elevation and about four thousand acres of new territory all with the corporate lines.

In other words, the visitors were shown what is practically a new city, with splendid paved streets in every direction lined with ornamental trees, and with broad paved avenues extending for miles and running back to the foothills.

Its civic center cost over a million dollars to build and compares favorably with anything in the State. Its banks, tourist hotel, lodge buildings, mercantile and its several extensive manufacturing establishments are notable in their class.

The city is the most important shipping point between San Francisco and San Jose. It is a junction city. All the freight and other traffic over the Dunbarton route crossing the bay for San Francisco connects with the Southern Pacific main-line tracks at Redwood City, or coming from San Francisco makes connection with the Dunbarton track at the Redwood City cut-off.

Thus the new Redwood was found to be a city of extensive area, of beautiful homes, of superb schools and public buildings and with a vast foothill district forming the ideal of peninsula properties.

Floral Parade and Carnival.

Thursday, May 4th, selected for the Floral parade and Carnival, could not have been better chosen. The weather was perfect, the streets in splendid order, the town spick and span and filled with sightseers.

The route of parade was from the depot down Broadway to Main street, to Mound, to Cassia, Stambaugh, back to Main, the procession countermarching on Main street and Broadway, thence to the ball park, where the exercises took place.

The order of parade was as follows: Escort, Grand Marshal—District Attorney Franklin Swart and aids. Mounted division, Marshals Woods, including lady and gentlemen riders in costume depicting American life from the native Indian; hunters and trappers, explorers, path-finders, early settlers, wives, families boys and girls, scouts, cowboys, rough riders, to modern times and thoroughbred mounts.

Redwood City Municipal Band, 20 pieces, George M. Wilhr, leader.

Redwood City Fire Department, M. E. Ryan, chief, together with mounted aids, Dignity and Lightness. Young ladies marching and carrying silk banner of the Redwood City Fire Department. Sin Lee, a "Chink" fireman, member of the department, popular with the fire laddies, and starting fires all along the route with his own combustibles, a great string of firecrackers suspended from a bamboo pole and carried over his shoulder.

Veteran Firemen and members of the Redwood City municipal council. Old "Vets" and members of No. 1 with original "pump" machine, followed by department members and the city's new chemical engine.

No. 2 Hose reel, with a dainty little cherub perched thereon as mascot.

No. 4. Hose reel, surmounted with large bell worked out in evergreens and white roses. Lucile Maloney, mascot. This being Fire Chief Ryan's company, lent its additional interest.

Redwood City Hook and Ladder company, with finely decorated truck and well drilled members.

Foresters of America Drum Corps, looking very natty in their fine uniforms, followed by the Redwood City branch Boy Scouts of America, with handsome silk banner containing the watchword, "Be Prepared."

At this point the unexpected happened—for behold, a Lilliputian Carnival of the smallest, cutest Kindergarten tots imaginable, costumed to the last minute and forming a trades and occupations procession, each character with appropriate garb and emblem, such as the baker with his big brown loaf and all the fanciful creations of fairyland. There was Robin Hood, Mother Goose, Tom Thumb in his chariot, also a bewildering array in fancy dress, and vehicles from dog and goat carts to wagons, doll perambulators, bikes, automobiles and a really, truly flying machine.

Then followed in marching order boys of the First Grade, Redwood City Grammar School, and girls of mixed grades, in two groups, forming the advance section of the six hundred pupils representing the Redwood City School Department in the parade.

"Swan" float, an elaborate creation, beautifully staged and winning prize for the School department, supported by thirty young ladies of the Grammar school.

Float, "Sequoia." Handsomely decorated and trimmed in Sequoia colors, purple and white with young ladies representing queen and attendants. Body guard on foot composed of Sequoia students in white duck suits and purple letters forming the word "Sequoia."

Float, "California." Fittingly trimmed in California golden poppies and especially grouped by young ladies of the school department. A very interesting production.

Float, "Robin Hood." Beautifully decorated; characters by Grammar school pupils; reproducing costumes and reviving stories from classic tales of fiction.

Redwood City School Department drill teams. Fifty handsome young pupils with class ribbons forming artistic groupings, marching in parade and brilliantly terminating the school department's contribution.

Float, "Gates Ajar." An artistic conception, light and graceful in execution, forming the centerpiece for the refined young ladies of the Congregational church who were prevailed upon to take part in the parade.

The Convent float, "America," came next in line. This feature had been turned over bodily to Mrs. Graham as an expert, who planned, costumed and carried out the whole affair. A striking tableau of discharged Uncle Sam and the Goddess of Liberty on a raised portion of the platform. Surrounding them and also marching were pupils of the convent representing every nation of the earth, who looked upward to the central figures, the conception being that at this time all the nations of the earth were looking to the United States. To say that every individual taking part, to the number of perhaps a couple of hundred, was costumed richly, with strict accuracy and attention to detail, gives only a faint idea of the picture created. It was elegant.

Band, Foresters of America.

Grand Court, Foresters of America, Grand Circle F. of A. Drill team, escorting.

Grand Companions.

Delegates to the Grand Court sessions, F. of A., several hundred participating in the parade.

Foresters of America drum corps.

Bonita Parlor, Native Daughters.

Bonita Parlor float, Cornucopia representing "Land of Plenty."

Redwood City Woman's Relief Corps.

Redwood City Woman's Relief Corps float, "Making the Flag." This float was one of the distinct features of the parade and elicited universal favorable comment. It was a large open structure handsomely but plainly trimmed with evergreen. A fine bunting forty-foot flag filled the entire body of the float from front to rear, where upon a raised portion of the platform a mounted dame in costume of the period, sat quietly plying the needle to finish "Old Glory."

Redwood City Woman's Relief Corps drill team and delegates, marched in parade, thoroughly drilled, richly costumed and forming a pronounced addition to the pageant.

Float, "Woodmen of World," with supporting followers. This was a very elaborate and costly affair, showing the rich regalia and other insignia. It was everywhere well received.

Float, City nest, "Order of Owls." This float also took the crowd. A great hollow stump on the platform contained one "nest" who kept up a continuous "Who-Who" while wise "old" birds filled in the rest of the stage and kept people well entertained.

Float, Morvin Grove, U. A. O. "Dignity." Like all the other fraternal contributions, this float was a good one. It rounded out a very interesting division and was a decided acquisition.

In the automobile parade there were many entries, several of exceeding beauty and of such equal merit that it would be presumptuous to single them out for mention. A decision must have been puzzling work for the judges who were to make the awards.

Exercises at the park consisted in part as follows:

Song and Maypole dance.

Song and March by Convent pupils.

Song by High School pupils.

Crowning of May Queen.

Exhibition by Boy Scouts.

Inspiration dance, Eleanor Dossee.

Fancy dance, Lorraine Brest.

Tableaux and Salute to the Flag.

America.

Thursday night there was an illumination and street dancing in front of the Court House. There was a continued bombardment of confetti throughout the evening. It was estimated that there were several thousand visitors in town, all of whom were amazed at the magnitude of the entertainment.

Carnival Cullings and Conversation

Is life worth living? Ask John J. Read. He knows.

Young America showed up strong in the parade and made a new record.

Editor Hedge says that after all he would rather umpire a ball game than tackle a carnival. Baseball "umps" get one day's work and seven nights' sleep every week. Carnival promoters work seven days, and get no sleep.

Hats off to Supervisor John MacBain. In addition to leading the parade over the fine roads in his district, he donated four machines, paid for the lighting of the courthouse grounds, built the grandstand and graced the banquet with his presence.

The Redwood City Municipal Band, under leadership of Band-master Geo. M. Wilhr, did fine work all during the carnival. Some notable selections were:

Schubert's Serenade, arr. by C. Horst.

"Poet and Peasant" Suppe.

"Short and Sweet," polka, T. V. Short.

Cornet duet, P. Whaley, R. Wagner.

Grand Selection No. 2, Offenbachiana "Manana", Chilian dance, Missiud.

March, "Compueror" Telke.

March, "Comrades" Telke.

March, "World's Panamanian", H. R. Welch.

Grand Fantasia, "My Old Kentucky Home."

Selection, Lusstpiel.

Celebrated Menuet, Paderewski.

Berlin in Smiles and Tears.

Selection, "Hearts and Flowers."

Danube Waltzes, Strauss.

Sunnyland Waltzes, Roemer.

Joe Vierra of Alameda county, delegate to Foresters' convention for the past ten years and on the transportation committee to present Grand Court session, said to one of our city merchants: "I was never treated so royally during my many annual visits to the Grand Courts."

A visiting Forester met a friend from the city on Carnival night and explaining things this way: "I have been here during the week. We have been feasted and feted. Our money was no good. I never had a better time in my life."

Communication

Mr. E. T. McGettigan, Chairman Floral Festival Committee:

Dear Mr. McGettigan—You gave us a very hard task Thursday, that of awarding the prizes for the "best" in your wonderful parade. There were so many beautiful floats, so many beautiful children, so much evidence of painstaking effort, that our awards were made with considerable difficulty. To the disappointed ones we want to say that there was so little difference between the "best" and the losers that we felt it incumbent upon ourselves to create a special prize of honorable mention, which while not a material prize, will in a small way, show that we fully appreciate the skill and artistry displayed by the teachers of the various schools, particularly the grammar schools, the members of the fraternal orders and the citizens through whose efforts the pageant was made so noteworthy. We therefore award honorable mention to the following:

Rebekah's Float

Native Daughters

Relief Corps

Gray Thorning

Fraternal Union.

Permit us to express our appreciation of the very beautiful "Swan" float, to which was awarded the prize as the "best" school group, and to say that we deem it worthy of "Special Honorable Mention," in addition to the official reward.

Again we say that our task was a hard one, but one that we undertook in all fairness. We trust our awards will please.

Yours very truly, C. P. Rendon, Milton M. Davis, Mrs. Julia Lehman, Mrs. W. A. Atwood, Judges.

The grand court session before concluding its labors yesterday elected W. A. Anderson, chief ranger, Frank Conklin, treasurer, Joseph J. Reboli, secretary. Among the seven trustees elected was A. S. Liguori of this city, who received the largest vote.

SHAKESPEAREAN SCENES TO BE GIVEN BY HIGH SCHOOL

Four Selections to be Rendered in Costumes Made by Themselves

On May 26 the students of the high school will present several scenes from Shakespeare, including one from Midsummer Night's Dream, one from Macbeth and two from the Merchant of Venice. These productions will be staged in the Assembly Hall in the high school and not at the Alhambra as is customary in deference to the many entertainments that are going to be put on this month. The four scenes will not be elaborate in any sense of the word but they will be interesting. The costumes used, as far as possible, will be made in the Domestic Science department or obtained right here in town.

If you like Shakespeare come and enjoy yourself. If you never have seen anything of this kind, witness it for the first time even at the hands of amateurs. Although the characters have not been assigned as yet, it is thought that Marie McAuliffe, Conit, O'Connell, Ray Boudreaux and John Isaac may have roles.

ADDITIONAL MENLO LOCALS

A petition is being circulated for signatures asking the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company to make a change in its directory so that Menlo Park will be listed in the exchange instead of Palo Alto. That is that Mr. Brown's address will be Menlo Park instead of Palo Alto. The contemplated change will be welcomed by the people of Menlo Park who have long sought it. Over 100 citizens have already signed the petition, among whom are: James L. Flood, J. Leroy Nickel, E. L. Eyre, Joseph A. Donohoe, Mrs. T. F. Payne, Timothy Hopkins, E. W. Hopkins, James D. O'Kane, A. J. Marcus, St. Patrick's Seminary, Herbert Fleishacker and all the business men in town. The company has expressed its intention of complying with the wishes of the people.

Friday evening, May 19 will be a red letter day for the Native Sons of Menlo Parlor. They are presenting a thrilling three-act drama at the Parochial Hall. Through the efforts of Howard Crane, the director of the play, nothing has been left undone to make this play a success. The play has been rehearsed for seven long weeks, which means hard work for all of the cast. All the characters of the play are well known amateurs. J. B. Welsh has appeared before the public many times in different roles. His acting is natural and strong throughout the play. Lillian Feeley plays the principal feminine role in the play. The public has seen Miss Feeley many times in different plays at Menlo Park and knows just what to expect from her. Miss Feeley is one of the strongest players in the drama. Donald Derry and Phil Blanchard, two very good thespians, are also taking part in this play. Donald's personal appearance on the stage is as fine as his acting. Phil knew his part at the second rehearsal. He is a long and hard part. He also knew the other parts as well as his own. Miss Isabel Weeden takes the part of the boarding house mistress to perfection. Miss Weeden is a very good in this particular part. She should be congratulated upon her fine showing. Miss Mary Feeley and Miss Alice Moriarty's parts in the play are good and as for their acting we cannot speak too highly of it. Both are not strangers on the stage as they have taken parts in all the plays that have been staged in Menlo. James Bruce and Howard Crane are a fine and substantial pair. Both their roles are amusing and snappy. Howard Crane's acting is of the highest as he has taken part in all the plays at Santa Clara College. We expect great acting from Howard at all times. James Bruce has a difficult as well as an amusing role which he has mastered in an able manner. Harry B. Morey Jr., the popular Native Son has his hands full as his part is the key to the play. His entry into his part was only last week which makes lots of hard work for Harry. James Burke does very well in his part as this is Jim's first appearance on the stage.

Leon Roos, of the firm of Roos Brothers, San Francisco, has leased the Richard Gilvin residence for the summer.
